

REVIEW OF THE MOODS OF VERBS

Topics		Review	Course webpages
SYNTAX OF MAIN CLAUSES
Mood of the verb : Indicative and Imperative		Review 2.6	Lesson 17: 17.3
Indicative, Imperative, Subjunctive		Review 5.1
SYNTAX OF DEPENDENT CLAUSES
Overview of dependent clauses			Lesson 13: 13.3
Noun clauses	Indirect statements Indirect questions	Review 2.11	Review 2.11
Relative (adjective) clauses		Review 5.2	Lesson 13: 13.4a, 13.4b
ǃv + Subjunctive in relative clauses		Review 5.4	Lesson 18: 18.5
Introduction to adverbial clauses			Lesson 14: 14.4
Adverbial clauses in the Indicative			Lesson 16: 16.4
ǃv + Subjunctive in temporal clauses		Review 5.4	Lesson 18: 18.3
ǃv + Subjunctive in conditional clauses		Review 5.4	Lesson 18: 18.4

Review 2.6: Moods, tenses, and voices

Active voice (the subject is or does something)

INDICATIVE = statement Negation: οὐ	Present οὐκ ἐθέλω I do not wish
	Past (Imperfect or Aorist) οὐκ ἤκουον / ἤκουσα τὸ αὐτό I was not hearing / did not hear the same thing
	Future οὐδὲν ἐθελήσω I will wish nothing
IMPERATIVE = command Negation: μή	Present and Aorist differ only in aspect. (There is no Future Imperative) διώκετε / διώξατε μόνον τοὺς κακοὺς Only pursue (you pl) the bad men!

Middle voice (the subject is variously involved in what it does)

INDICATIVE = statement Negation: οὐ	Present φυλάττομαι I defend myself
	Past (Imperfect or Aorist) οὐκ ἐφυλάττεσθε / ἐφυλάξασθε You (pl) were not defending / did not defend yourselves.
	Future δικαίας γραφὰς γραψόμεθα We will file just indictments
IMPERATIVE = command Negation: μή	Present and Aorist differ only in aspect. (There is no Future Imperative) φυλάττεσθε / φυλάξασθε = Defend yourselves! μὴ γράψασθε ἀδίκους γραφὰς Do not file unjust indictments!

Passive voice (the subject is acted upon)

INDICATIVE = statement Negation: Οὐ	Present θεραπεύεται ὑπὸ τοῦ ἰατροῦ He is being healed by the doctor
	Past (Imperfect) (You have not studied yet the Aorist Passive) ἐκαλοῦντο μακάριοι They were called blessed.
	(You have not studied yet the Future Passive)
IMPERATIVE = command Negation: μή	Present (You have not studied yet the Aorist Passive) (There is no Future Imperative) μὴ καλεῖσθε δειλοί Don't be called (you pl) cowards!

Deponent verbs

INDICATIVE = statement Negation: οὐ	Present γίνονται μακάριοι They become blessed.
	Past (Imperfect) ἐβούλοντο μανθάνειν They wanted to learn
	Future γενήσονται μακάριοι
IMPERATIVE = command Negation: μή	Present and Aorist differ only in aspect. (no Future Imperative) μὴ καλεῖσθε δειλοί Do not be called (you pl) cowards!